

I can not believe that our lives will become disrupted again with this challenge. Does our right to privacy mean nothing anymore to anyone? If this passes I can only say that I will not only give up a home telephone, I will only use my cell phone and choose when to turn it on. I for one do not want unnecessary phone calls and disrupting my daily life!!!!